IRISH QUESTION TO BE SOLVED BY NEXT WEEK

Sinn Feiners Offer Amendments to Premier's Peace Proposals.

WILL REJECT PLAN

Warfare or Peace For Ireland To Be Finally Settled.

London, Dec. 2.—Arthur Griffith and Michael Collins, two leading members of the Sinn Fein peace delegation have offered amendments to the new peace proposals sent to Dublin by Premier Lloyd George, it was learned this afternoon. It is reported in authoritative circles that the Sinn Fein will ultimately reject the new Irish peace formula because it provides for the partition of Ireland. The Sinn Feiners demand a united Ireland under a single parliament at Dublin.

Desmond Fitzgerald, press representative of the Sinn Fein delegation reveals that Collins and Griffith had suggested amendments to Premier Lloyd George before they left for Dublin to consult with Eamon DeValera and members of Dail Eireann. The Sinn Fein cabinet will meet tomorrow and the conference will continue on Sunday. The Sinn Feiners probably will return to London Sunday night or Monday.

London, Dec. 2.—Whether the Irish peace conference will collapse entirely and warfare will be resumed in Ireland will be decided Monday, according to indications today. Arthur Griffith, Michael Collins, an G. Gavan Duffy, three members of the Sinn Fein peace delegation, left for Dublin this morning. R. C. Barton had gone to Dublin, yesterday, and the only Irish delegate remaining here is E. J. Duggan, chief liaison officer of the Irish republican army.

The Sinn Fein representatives will confer with Eamon DeValera and members of Dail Eireann until Monday. On Monday the Sinn Feiners are expected to return to London bearing a final decision from the Sinn Fein cabinet.

DeValera has been in West Ireland but is expected to return to Dublin this afternoon for consultations with his colleagues. The delegates before leaving London, refused to make any prediction as to the course that will be followed.

It is understood, however that the new proposals which Premier Lloyd George has sent to Dublin do not make certain specifications relating to Ulster which were a part of the original formula.

PRESIDENT WILL FEATURE TARIFF IN HIS MESSAGE

Washington, Dec. 2.—President Harding's message to the new Congress next week, it was declared in high official circles, will deal principally with two subjects, the tariff and merchant marine.

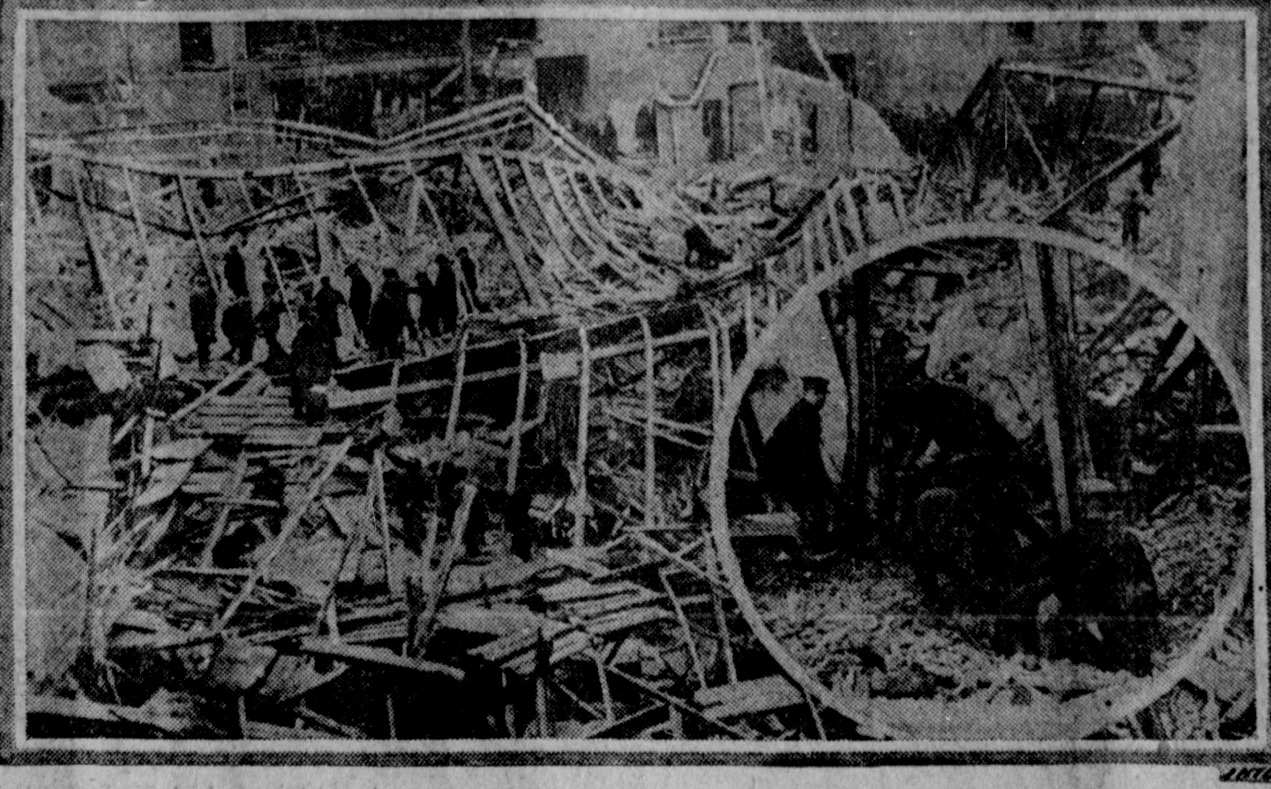

Of the tariff Mr. Harding is expected by those close to the White House to say that its revision and passage at the earliest possible date is urgently necessary and that it should be stripped of such provisions as would endanger or unduly delay its passage.

Concerning merchant marine questions Mr. Harding is expected to take a definite stand for the granting of some sort of ship subsidy, probably in the nature of preferential rates and routes, as supplementary to the granting of free tolls to coastwise shipping through the Panama Canal. It also was expected in the same quarters that the president would discuss section 24 of the Jones act, dealing with the abrogation of trade treaties by the executive. Study of the situation was said to have developed a feeling on the part of administration officials that it will be difficult, if not impossible, to carry out the provisions of this section.

Tariff matters, senate leaders insisted, will occupy the prominent position in the message. It was asserted that Mr. Harding would ask that rates in the house bill, now in the hands of the senate finance committee, be fixed on the old basis of invoice rather than on the house provision of American wholesale valuation. His reason for that stand according to some of his councilors was that he had been assured it would be better to apply the new system piecemeal than by employing the plan on all commodities at one time.

Search Brooklyn Theater Wreck For Victims

Seven persons are known to be dead and three missing, when a theater in Brooklyn, N. Y. collapsed and buried its victims. Scores of workmen were injured and sent to hospitals in a serious condition. The theory advanced by the officials for the disaster is that the fresh mortar was softened following several days of rain. The owners of the uncompleted structure were arrested and charged with homicide. Eighty-three workmen were at work on the building when it collapsed. The photograph shows the remains of the interior of the building after the catastrophe and firemen searching the ruins for the bodies of the victims.

Japan, Fearful of Responsibility of Another War, Will Accept Proposal

Nipponese Delegates Will First Reject Plan as Endangering Safety of Their Country and Will Then Voluntarily Accept Provisions—Country Realizes That Proposition Would Throw Responsibility of Future War On Her.

Washington, Dec. 2.—Japan will accept completely the Hughes 5-5-3 ratio of capital ships, the International News Service was informed today on the highest authority.

This "break" in the official Japanese attitude represents a sweeping victory of its diplomatists over the powerful militarist party. Japan's decision was revealed by a high official of the Japanese delegation, whose authority is unquestioned.

The diplomatic group is winning its demand for acceptance of the Hughes proposals, he declared, only by impressing upon the opposing group the fact that Japan alone would have to bear the blame for another frightful world war if she wrecked the Washington conference.

Acceptance of the American proposals will be made as a "Japanese sacrifice" to world peace, he stated. The delegation however, will first formally reject the Hughes plan as "endangering the national safety of Japan."

This official rejection, based on the report of the Nipponese naval experts, will be followed by a voluntary acceptance motivated entirely by humanitarian principles, he said.

"The future peace of the world hangs breathless on the decision that Japan is about to make with regard to the American proposals for the limitation of navies," the official said, and continued, "Japan knows this. Japan knows that it is for her to say whether the years ahead shall witness a frightful armament race ending in a frightful warfare or whether the years that lie before us shall be dedicated to the promotion of international amity and the common striving for what is best for all. Japan knows this and will act accordingly."

ARREST MORSE ABOARD LINER DENIES GUILT

Financier and Ship Builder Wanted to Testify Before Grand Jury.

Havre, France, Dec. 2.—Charles W. Morse, American ship builder and financier who was taken into custody by the police on his arrival on the liner Paris, was released this afternoon upon his promise to return to the United States on the first outgoing liner.

Havre, France, Dec. 2.—Charles W. Morse, of New York, financier and ship builder, was arrested upon his arrival here today on board the liner Paris.

It is understood that Mr. Morse is wanted to testify before an American grand jury relative to financial relations which he had with the U. S. Shipping Board during the war. Mr. Morse in an exclusive statement to the International News Service denied any wrong doing.

"I know absolutely nothing about the cause of my arrest," said he. "It is preposterous if any charges have been made against me. I came to France for a vacation. My health has not been good."

As soon as the Paris docked, five French policemen accompanied by the American consul went aboard. They said that the instructions to arrest Morse had been received from the American Embassy in Paris.

PORTER TESTIFIES BURCH HAD GUN CASE ON TRAIN

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 2.—The trial of Arthur C. Burch, on an indictment charging him with the murder of J. Belton Kennedy, was resumed in Superior Court yesterday, the first witness being J. W. Musseron, an undertaker, who had helped to remove the body of Kennedy from the steps of his summer home in Beverly Glen, where he was shot down.

R. J. Sanderson, a sleeping car porter, testified that Burch came west from Chicago with him, leaving there July 21, and that Burch's baggage which Sanderson frequently handled on the way, included a shotgun case. Kennedy was slain with a shot gun and when Burch was arrested he stated he had no such weapon in his possession while he was in Los Angeles at about the time of the shooting.

Thirty telegrams were produced by the prosecution and ordered marked for identification. The District Attorney indicated that he would endeavor to have the messages read into the record in their effort to prove Burch conspired with Mrs. Madalynne C. Obenchain, indicted jointly with him, to take Kennedy's life. Names of the senders or recipients were not put in evidence or given out.

BREACHES OF IRISH ARMISTICE OCCUR

Dublin, Dec. 2.—Two sensational breaches of the Irish armistice, in which two men were killed and several others wounded, occurred in Dublin and Derry today.

A jail delivery was attempted at Derry. As the result of carefully laid plans a number of prison warders were overpowered while men on the outside attempted to storm the jail. Two warders, who also were constables, were killed with chloroform. Soldiers were rushed to the scene and fired upon by the Sinn Fein sympathizers who were trying to climb the prison walls with rope ladders. The men fled in swift motor cars.

Armed civilians rushed into the Carlton hotel in Dublin shouting "hands up" at two army officers who were seated in the office. The officers drew revolvers instead of complying. In the exchange of shots that followed several civilians were wounded.

BELIEVE ROBBERY MOTIVE OF CRIME

Benton Harbor, Mich., Dec. 2.—Robbery is regarded as the probable motive today for the murder of Wm. J. Handy, 50, a potato dealer, whose body was found floating in the St. Joseph River.

A stone weighing 50 pounds was found anchored to the body by a rope. Two jagged holes in the skull are believed to have been inflicted with a hatchet.

Handy was supposed to be wealthy and was known to have carried several hundred dollars on his person most of the time. Sheriff Bridgeman is convinced that robbery was the motive for the slaying as Handy's pockets were empty when the body was found.

PREMIER BRIAND ARRIVES IN FRANCE

Havre, Dec. 2.—Premier Briand arrived home today from the Washington conference.

"I am delighted to have been able to visit the United States but am happy to return to my native land," said the premier in answering an address of welcome by Mayor Meyer. A special train bearing ministers, deputies and senators, arrived from Paris at 9:30. The officials immediately boarded a tug which met the liner at the three mile limit.

M. Briand was guest of honor at a champagne luncheon.

MOBBS PLUNDER CITY OF VIENNA BEFORE ORDER IS RESTORED IN AUSTRIAN CITY

Four Hundred are Injured as Soldiers Charge Rioters In Most Lawless Demonstration in History of City—Americans Threatened By Mobs in Hotel.

Vienna, Dec. 2.—Four hundred persons were wounded when soldiers with drawn sabers charged mobs that were rioting throughout the business district of this city. Quiet has been restored today. Four hundred arrests were made.

The damage is estimated at 200,000,000 kroner.

It was the most lawless demonstration in the history of the city. The plundering continued until midnight with police helpless. Heavy attacks were directed against the big hotels and finally the troops had to establish cordons to save them from destruction.

Forty thousand Austrian soldiers joined the rioting. Motor cars were held up and the occupants stripped of overcoats and jewelry. The hotel Bristol was penetrated by wreckers who rushed to the fourth floor, where American and English guests had taken refuge. Most of the Americans had locked themselves in the apartments of Sir William Goode, an English commissioner. The rioter broke down the door and threatened to attack the foreigners, but left without doing so.

The palace formerly owned by Arch Duke Ludwig was wrecked.

PACKING HOUSE EMPLOYEES WILL STRIKE MONDAY

Forty Five Thousand Workers Are Affected By Order.

Chicago, Dec. 2.—Forty-five thousand packing house employees have been instructed by officials of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of North America to go on strike at 6 o'clock next Monday morning. Orders for the strike are en route today to branches of the union in all packing centers.

It is estimated that 20,000 men will go on strike in Chicago if the strike call is obeyed. Other cities affected by the strike are St. Paul, Milwaukee, Sioux City, Omaha, Kansas City, Wichita, Oklahoma City, East St. Louis, North Worth, Dubuque, Cedar Rapids and Austin, Minn.

Included in the strike call are about 8,000 members of allied unions, such as the stationary firemen, steam and operating engineers, car repairmen, carpenters, blacksmiths and other craftsmen employed in packing plants.

Dennis Lane, secretary of the Meat Cutters Union, declared today that all of the union men would go on strike and that many non-union men were expected to join with them. Representatives of the big packing plants here declared few men would respond to the strike order.

The strike, in protest against recent wage reductions announced by the packers and agreed to by many employees under the "shop representation" plan. The unions have refused to participate in this plan.

Authority was given the officials of the union to call the strike by a vote of the members. The decision to strike was reached at a meeting of officials of the union here.

UNEMPLOYED ARMY DECREASED DURING MONTH BY MILLION

Washington, Dec. 2.—The number of the nation's unemployed was decreased by more than 1,000,000 during November, according to an estimate of the national conference on unemployment, announced yesterday by Secretary Hoover.

The concerted effort of the government and state and municipal authorities to relieve the unemployed by providing public work, as recommended by the president's conference on unemployment, is in large part responsible for the improved conditions, in the opinion of Secretary Hoover.

The commerce secretary said that while some of the unemployment decreases might be only temporary, reports to the conference from all parts of the country indicated considerable improvement. He cited as an instance reports from St. Louis of approximately 15,000 unemployed, as compared with previous official figures of 65,000. Unemployment estimates at the time of the unemployment conference played the total throughout the country at somewhere between 3,500,000 and 4,000,000.

CONFERENCE MUST DETERMINE CONTROL OVER MANUFACTURE OF WAR MUNITIONS

Private Operations In This Country Constitutes Problem For Meeting in Washington--Foreign Nations Are Obtaining Supplies From America.

Washington, Dec. 2.—One of the lesser matters the Washington conference has still to deal with is the nature of the control, if any, to be imposed on the private manufacture and sale of munitions.

The Greeks and Turks are conducting a sort of war today. In the last six months, both have fired substantial quantities of shells and small arms ammunition. Neither manufacture any, or at any rate, nothing worth talking about.

Where do they get their supplies? China, which also has no munition factories, of any account, appears to get access to rifles and munitions as easily as Americans get access to whiskey. Where do they come from?

The question in this case may be rather easier to answer. But what matters is not particular cases but whether wars, which otherwise would peter out, for lack of material, are to be fed by munitions manufactured as a business proposition by private traders in other countries.

The spokesmen of every civilized nation are agreed in theory that private manufacture and traffic in arms should be rigorously controlled.

UNCOVER DRUG RING RUNNING IN LIMA, OHIO

Widely Known Residents Said To Be Implicated In Plot

Lima, O., Dec.—With sensational revelations made by Harold Nierengarten in regard to his confession Wednesday night, police centered their investigation in running down a drug ring in operation here.

According to W. J. King, detective, Columbus, with whom Nierengarten talked, if Nierengarten's statements are true, Lima is the center of the best organized and most successful and tremendous receipt and distribution of opium and other illicit drugs to come within his notice during a career of more than twenty years as a detective.

Names, dates and time, with all other data given King, by Nierengarten, and which was forwarded to federal authorities at Toledo is expected to result in a general clean up, in which Lima police will play an active part.

According to King Nierengarten's statements which constitute practically an elaboration of declarations made first to representatives of a local morning paper, after the former bell boy's removal to Wapakoneta and prior to his confession connect a number of widely known and wealthy persons in this section with the alleged traffic in drugs.

Nierengarten in repudiating his confession, said Joseph Scott Kershaw was killed in a Baltimore and Ohio box car on Nov. 20, because he refused to deliver up two pounds of dope he had previously arranged with Nierengarten to dispose of to a Cridersville man. Nierengarten now charges a man named "Whitey" with the murder of Kershaw, Lima war hero.

REDUCE SCHOOL LUNCH PRICES

Cleveland, O., Dec. 2.—Food prices charged in Cleveland school cafeterias have been reduced for the second time this year. Under the new schedule a satisfying lunch of beef stew, two slices of bread, butter, milk, and pie can be bought for sixteen cents. Heretofore these same viands would have cost 24 cents. All school cafeterias are operated at cost and recent reductions in wholesale prices made possible the second cut.

WOMAN GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER

Wheeling, W. Va., Dec. 2.—Louise Conkle is free today, bond of $15,000 pending arraignment of a motion for a new trial. She found guilty of voluntary manslaughter late last night after the jury been out 29 hours.

Mrs. Conkle admitted she shot her girlhood chum, Mrs. Williams on October 29, when she learned that her husband had engaged in a low-life affair with a friend. Her husband, in an attempt to save her from prison, the stand and as a result is answer to a charge of violating Mann white slave act.

Columbus, Dec. 2.—An attempt to be admitted to prison at the penitentiary was by Clarence L. Jackson, 43, dusky.

"I got good and tired of people around home asking when I was going to begin my time, so I just came over. I want to start my sentence," son told Warden Thomas.

He was sentenced to serve seven years for embezzling of a Sandusky dairy company. Because he had not received commitment papers from Taylor, Sandusky county, he was compelled to turn over his request. After a long delay, the papers were forwarded, immediately promising to return.

PESSIMISM COVERING MEETING

Japan's Antagonism 5-5-3 Ratio Is Cracking

DEADLOCK NEAR

English Attitude Influence On Japanese Action

Washington, Dec. 2.—Pessimism which has been works of the Washington conference for some days, because of Japan's opposition to accept Hughes naval program, is being dissipated with the far eastern events, but slightly today and there are indications that the pace of the conference is soon to be accelerated.

Japan's antagonism to ratio of capital ships is being cracked. The naval experts in Tokyo are at an ant in their opposition. Hughes figures, but positions are being forthcoming to the diplomatic strategists. Tokyo is beginning to "light."

It was significant that the Japanese spokesmen for the United States and Great Britain most identical remarks. Paper inquirers asked the naval experts.

"Experts are all in places," said the Japanese for Great Britain, not attempt to get statements.

According to the authorities, the conference toward Japan will last only and Japan's acceptance of the 5-5-3 ratio by the middle of the month.

It is likely that the conference will be announced by Thursday. The press of the same time to that was forthcoming at the principal ally, Great Britain.

Great Britain's prompt acceptance of the Hughes proposal had no small effect on Japanese spokesmen have counsel Tokyo allies that the American program is fair to all concerned that Japan will defeat her and will draw down upon universal opprobrium by opposition.

Progress in far eastern while slow is such as to be optimistic. China and Japan fully launched into the job of justifying the dangerous issue and Chinese opposition private negotiation with Japan overcome by the presence of two American and two British experts, who are to attend all sessions in the role of umpires. Nierengarten now charges a man named "Whitey" with the murder of Kershaw, Lima war hero.

MRS. CONOVER GIVES HER EXPERIENCES IN MAGAZINE WORK

The third lecture, of Mrs. Charlotte
Reeve Conover, given at the First Reformed Church, Thursday night under the auspices of the Xenia Business and Professional Women's Club, was one of the most interesting and enjoyable of the series as judged by the large number who attended.

Showing a widely-read knowledge of current events in state, national and world affairs, Mrs. Conover's talks are characterized with many bits of humor. Her "Adventure in Journalism" as given to her Thursday night audience, was especially enjoyed because of this.

Mrs. Conover's adventure in journalism, or experience in Ladies Home Journalism, as she expressed it, was gained from 8 years experience on the Ladies Home Journal, as editor of a department for girls. The problems presented, and the way in which they were met, furnished the theme of the topic.

An interesting engagement

Lascelles, to a gruesome murder trial, where chosen for a "choice but

"New Points on the Conference," dealing with recent speech of Premier Briand of France and Dr. Eze, China, was taken by Mrs. Conover as her opening topic. "Public Health, and a Valuable Visitor," in connection with the fiftieth anniversary celebration of New York City of the establishment of the federal and city health organizations and the presence of Dr.
Stephan Smith, the founder and of Dr. Lorenz, the Austrian, were also discussed.

U. S. MAY ABANDON GUAM DEFENSES

Washington, Dec. 2.—The United States probably will agree to abandon plans for further fortification of Guam, should such a concession be necessary to the success of the conference, it was learned on high authority today.

This fact was elicited following statements in Japanese official circles that Japan's experts are considering the advisability of asking for limitation of Pacific fortifications to compensate for her acceptance of the 5-5-3 ratio or capital ships.

URGE PUBLIC TO HEAR DR. FESS

Congressman S. D. Fess will paint a word picture of the Arms Conference Sunday night 7:30 at the Presbyterian Church, in this city. His subject is "The Problems and Prospects of the Arms Conference."

A number of people from Xenia heard Dr. Fess at Yellow Springs last Sunday night and are enthusiastic in their praise of his world grasp of the situation. Dr. Fess himself a close student of current history has made a special study of our Foreign Relations and more intimately in anticipation of the Conference for the Limitation of Armaments. At first hand he has interviewed the conditions as represented by the different delegations and presents a complete analysis which is prophetic. It has been some time since a Xenia audience heard Hon. Fess on any subject and the Men's Club of the Presbyterian Church invites the public to share this opportunity with them.

TRAIN IS WRECKED

MILD WINTER SAY PROPHETS

The weather man sits down at the old family organ and plays Plavus and Sol with variations.

Thursday, the first day of December was as bright and chipper as a mid-April day, and was recorded as the warmest first of December in 35 years.

The highest temperature recorded was 64 degrees, the thermometer giving the lie to the calendar. Ohio weather records show the highest temperature recorded on that date before was 63 in 1901.

A local sage, who believes in signs, predicts a mild weather as a result of the type of weather on tap, Thursday. This prophet says the kind of weather to be experienced is forecast by the brand put out during the first three days of the month of December.

Home-made clairvoyants also anticipate a mild winter from the corn husks and other domesticated signs.

Gibney; Gun Club, C. A. Weaver, chairman, to appoint his own committee; House, D. W. Cherry, J. D. Adair, Mrs. Charles Fisher, Mrs. C. L. Darlington, Jr., Mrs. J. Kenneth Williamson; Greens, J. E. "EDUCATION WEEK" IS DECEMBER 4-10

Columbus, Dec. 2.—The American Legion and the National Educational Association are sponsoring "Education week" to be observed throughout the United States December 4-10. The Ohio state department of education is mobilizing its forces to push this movement which has as its object better schools, better homes and as well as a fuller citizenship.

Members of the Ohio branch, National congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher associations will work hand in hand with school officials. It is pointed out, however, that where there is no Parent-Teacher association to take the initiative, this work should be done by school officials and members of the American Legion.

During the campaign stress will be placed upon the importance of vocational education. Pastors will be urged to preach on educational themes in their pulpits on Sunday, December 4. Leaders of the movement have directed attention to President Harding's statement: "Drive home to the American people the conviction of needed concern for its educational necessities."

PREFER BRIDGE TOLLS.

Bridgeport, Me., Dec. 1.—Many autoists traveling from the center of town to the north end or enroute to Martins Ferry, cross the Ohio River, travel through Wheeling and cross back again before reaching the north end of this town, paying toll twice rather than risk damage to autos from bad streets. The town recently voted down a street paving bond issue, expecting the paving to become so bad that the state will aid the municipality by paying a portion of the cost of repaving.

IF HEADACHE IS DUE TO DEBILITY

Gude's Pepto - Mangan Restores the Blood to Natural Vigor

Many people who suffer from headaches never find the real cause. They do not know that a condition of debility, with blood thin and watery, is likely to cause ailments of any kind. Headaches are frequently brought on by a weakened condition. The body is more sensitive to pain and until the blood is healthy it is almost impossible to establish a cure for headaches. It is of the utmost importance to build up the blood first. People subject to headaches are usually in a more or less run down condition.

A course in Gude's Pepto-Mangan, taken in either liquid or tablet form, builds the blood, restores it to its natural normal state, full of red corpuscles, the little cells which make blood red in color. Thousands of people are finding that headaches are due to nothing but a weakened condition caused by impure blood clogged with poisons. By Gude's Pepto-Mangan of your druggist. He has it in liquid and tablet form. adv.

MOOSE BANQUET WELL ATTENDED AT LOCAL LODGE

One hundred and twenty-five present and former members of Xenia Lodge, No. 1629, Loyal Order of Moose, responded to the "get-together" meeting staged by the members at the Lodge Hall, Wednesday night.

The big meeting was arranged as a home-coming for some of the old members, and as a testimonial to James J. Davis, secretary of labor, who is Director General to the national order.

Inspired by the effort of Secretary Davis, the national lodge has grown from an order with a membership of 246, to a present roll call of over 600,000. The Mooseheart Lodge home, at Mooseheart, Illinois, has charge of 105 boys and girls.

The meeting, Wednesday night, was opened with initiation ceremonies, a class of six candidates being taken into the order. A banquet was served the members and guests of the evening, following the ceremonies. During the banquet, selections were given by the Big Four Orchestra, with several vocal selections by Miss Mary Noble, violinist, with the orchestra.

William Cyphers, lodge dictator, was the toast master of the evening, giving a short address, introducing several other speakers of the evening.

The meeting was staged in connection with the membership drive that is being conducted among the order throughout the country. While no definite plans for a campaign have been made, the lodge is ever striving to increase the local membership.

MISS FRANCES NEWMAN, Chicago, Ill.

"Only a medicine of truly wonderful merit could have done what Tanlac did for me and there is nothing half good enough for me to say about it," said Miss Frances Newman, 2639 Hirsch St., Chicago.

"I don't think anybody ever suffered any more from indigestion than I did and for over a year I was in wretched health. I had smothering spells and my heart palpitated so violently I thought I had heart trouble, but I know now it was all caused from my stomach."

"Since taking Tanlac I feel and look like a different person. I have a splendid appetite and my digestion is just perfect. I sleep eight or nine hours every night and get up in the morning feeling fresh and happy. My friends tell me I'm always smiling now and I certainly ought to be, for I'm enjoying life again."

Tanlac is sold in Xenia by Sayre & Hemphill, and leading druggists everywhere.

manager of the schools. Superintendent C. A. Waltz is a member of the club.

An invitation was extended Coach Wilce of Ohio State to address the gathering, but owing to a Western Conference ruling forbidding him from taking such a part in the affair, he was forced to decline. The State mentor assured the local committee however, that a representative of the University would be sent, who would speak after dinner. Members are anticipating a talk possibly from a member of this year's team.

ARRANGE RULES FOR SPORTING EVENTS

Chicago, Dec. 2.—Instructors in gymnastics, fencing and wrestling in Big Ten universities are in session here today to draft schedules for a series of meets for the indoor season. Changes in wrestling rules are to be discussed by the mat coaches.

Tomorrow football, baseball, track and swimming coaches will meet to draw up schedules for the ensuing season. Basketball coaches and officials will meet to discuss and interpret rules. Considerable agitation is stirring official athletic circles for a more favorable football schedule next year for Iowa, the 1921 champion. It is probable that the Hawkeyes will book games with Ohio and Wisconsin and perhaps with Chicago.

WHERE DISARMAMENT TOUCHES YOUR POCKET AND MINE.

It is estimated that under the naval reduction plan proposed by the United States this nation's tax bill would be reduced $200,000,000 a year.

That means an average of about $2 apiece or $10 a family. It means perhaps two or three times that much for the average income-tax-payer.

Expressed either in these personal terms or in its totality, the $200,000,000 may not seem a great deal, in a time given to the contemplation of public expenditure by billions. But let it be observed that this theoretical saving is not a fixed sum, to be credited only once. It is the abolishment of a yearly charge. And $200,000,000 a year means the interest, at 4 per cent, on $5,000,000,000. In other words, if our naval expenditures can be cut down and kept down to the extent mentioned, it will be like finding five billions.

Double that benefaction for England and Japan, and we have a profit altogether of $15,000,000,000 in the three countries, to be turned to the purposes of constructive industry and trade, instead of being thrown down a bottomless hole. At that rate, the thing is very much worth talking about.

A TIME WHEN A BLIND MAN POINTED THE WAY TO PERSONS WITH GOOD EYES.

Fog such as London has not experienced in twenty years, settled on the city Sunday night and forced the oldest inhabitants, who are accustomed to greeting each other on a misty day with "Oh, this is nothing," to keep their peace. Nine hundred thousand tons of soot were suspended in the atmosphere in which 7,000,000 persons attempted to live, work and worst of all, to get about. The passage from point to point in the city could compare only to difficulties encountered by a mariner on an uncharted sea and the possibility of reaching one's destination was ascertained only by the laws of probability and chance.

Fire engines called by duty went through the pitch black streets preceded by a man on foot with a lantern. The buses adopted the lesson of the wagon trains that crossed the Western plains during the gold rush and traveled in convoys of nine or ten also led by a man on foot with a light. The busy traffic centers were marked by from four to ten huge acetylene torches which pierced the surrounding darkness for not more than fifteen feet. Flaring headlights were no nuisance for nature removed the glare, although the automobiles could not move without their lights on full.

Accidents were innumerable. The black cloud was no respecter even of royalty. Prince Henry attempted to motor from London to Whitebury for a hunting engagement, and after narrowly escaping two collisions then decided to spend the night at a half-way house. A freakish incident occurred when two women lost within two squares of home, were directed by a blind veteran whose misfortune made him impervious to fogs in a district he knew by heart.

MISTAKE OF PONCE DE LEON.

When Ponce de Leon went hunting the Fountain of Youth he chose the wrong place to look. Instead of sailing to far Florida he should have sought out the nearest dairy.

Dr. Sandowin, professor of physical chemistry at the University of Kiev, has found a tiny village in the Caucasus mountains where 18 men out of a population of 120 are over 100 years old and still going strong. Their diet consisted exclusively of soured cow's milk, cheese made from sheep's milk, and white bread. In these days of high living what modern community could be found in which three out of every 20 of the population were not only well over the century mark, but hale and hearty?

Not every one will care to restrict himself to the diet described even for the sake of making Methuselah jealous. But there is little doubt that if people would take more milk and milk products, and fewer elaborate and expensive foods the life insurance companies would soon have to revise their estimates of longevity.

RATHER HUGE PROJECT.

The necessary preliminary study and discussion of the Great Lakes St. Lawrence ship canal and power project are going forward steadily. Governors from eighteen states of the middle west were invited to attend a conference on the subject held recently in New York city. The meeting was planned by the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers. It was the biggest gathering yet assembled for the purpose.

A good many details need careful study and a considerable amount of opposition must be overcome. On the whole, however, the plan is making headway. The chief interests standing out against it are recognized as selfish and sectional. The opinion in favor of it is widespread and increasing in volume. Many persons who understand the problems involved and the purpose to be achieved agree with Secretary Hoover who calls the proposed waterway "a national remedy" for our transportation difficulties. The vision exists already. Achievement is now only a matter of time.

RIPPLING RHYMES THE PEDDLER.

The peddler greets me at my door, and he has things to sell, some dope to stain a kitchen floor, a patent dinner bell; but I can buy them at the store from J. Augustus Snell. The peddler has no interests here, he doesn't pay the freight; he doesn't chip in every year to keep the tax list straight; and so I say, "Please disappear" and shoo him from my gate. It may be he sells better junk than Snell does at the store; but if I spend with him a plunk, I'll never see him more, and if I find his goods are punk, 'twill be no use to roar. But if at J. Augustus Snell's I buy a quilting frame, and find it isn't wearing bells, its workmanship to blame, I seek that merchant where he dwells, and climb upon his frame. And he'll produce another frame, or else refund the cash; he can't afford to win a fame for selling worthless trash; it's up to him to play the game or see his business smash. And J. Augustus nobly stacks when boosting schemes abound, and J. Augustus pays his tax without a doleful sound, and joins the boys who sprain their backs to make the wheels go round. The peddlers to our village peek and then they disappear, and little, little do they reckon what problems we may fear; but J. Augustus is on deck all through a fateful year.

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with bicarbonate, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent bicarbonate drink.

POSTOFFICE WILL AID DELIVERIES

Evidence of a changed attitude toward the public since the advent of a Republican administration is apparent in the efforts of the United States, Postal Department, under Will H. Hays, Postmaster General, to increase efficiency in the department in the delivery of daily newspapers and is asking the cooperation of the papers.

The plans of Mr. Hays represent a constructive effort on the part of the new administration to remedy or alleviate confusion which has attended the delivery of daily newspapers for some time often resulting in delays of days at a time and it tends generally increase the efficiency of the department.

The department is asking newspapers to use some distinctive wrapper or label on dailies wrapped singly or in club packages, in order that postal clerks sorting mail on postal cars at high speed and under trying conditions, can tell them from other mail matter similarly wrapped and similarly addressed.

Cooperation among newspapers will be attended by a decided improvement in the handling of papers, according to Mr. Hays.

The Festival Orchestra

FRIDAY, DECEMBER, 2ND

XENIA OPERA HOUSE

The Festival Orchestra owes its popularity to a considerable degree to the fact that the artistic and the entertainment qualities are so happily blended that the program meets with the approval of the best critics, and yet is enjoyed by every lover of music—whether of any musical training or not.

In addition to the excellence and variety of their instrumental selections, the singing included in the program adds greatly to its attractiveness. Some of the songs are with orchestral accompaniment. Among those that are always enjoyed and remembered are the boat songs, including a number of Venetian gondola melodies.

The Festival Orchestra program includes a number of the new melodies, as well as the old time favorites.

"It Can't Be Done"

—said our critics when we announced a year ago the adoption of

and our intention of paying depositors interest within one per cent of the amount received from loans.

That it can be done is best proved by the fact that during our first year of operation under this plan our assets increased more than 106%—a greater gain than was made in this period by any other building and loan company in America.

Let us send you our interesting booklet explaining how and why Columbian Certificates of Deposit Now Pay 6% instead of the usual 4% or 5%. We mail it free.

COLORED LEGION IN LINE

WHEN IT comes to performing at the grand-old game of basket ball, the quintette which is representing John Roan Post, No. 517, American Legion, is unwilling to take second place with any court combination in the county. In the array of cage artists summoned at the bid of the Legion to do battle on the court under the colors of John Roan Post, is included "Cannon Ball" Harris, captain of the soldier five,, a center of no mean ability and an excellent leader. At one of the forwards can be found "Red" Anderson, former star, an ex-pupil of the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home.

Billy Lewis, who cavorts at the other firing position, makes up for his want of stature with an all-round floor ability that stamps him as first water. "Bold" Watkins, is a former East High star during the season of 1918. Mat Hill, another ex of the O. S. and S. O. Home, contributes much to the strength of the colored quintette.

George "Babe" Powers is a handy lad when treading the suction-soles. Oscar Cunnigan, known to the fans as "Stonewall" Cunnigan, and ten-second man, shakes a mean set of rubber soles over the rectangle. "Chick" Smith, who formerly performed on one of Chicago's hottest court combinations adds much to the strength of the local team this year.

Ollie Thomas, holds the reigns as manager of the Legion five. The team will meet the best colored aggregation in Dayton at the rink here next Monday night.

The John Roan Post wishes to thank Xenia citizens for their support in the past, and also the business men for their encouragement by running the advertisements on this page.

Efficient Housekeeping

HELPFUL LETTERS FROM READERS

R. I.: "Here is a recipe I discovered the other day. I call it 'Vegetable Pie.' Peel and cut into small pieces 4 or 5 potatoes, 2 large onions, 4 or 5 carrots, and 1-2 head of solid white cabbage. Put these ingredients into a sauce pan with water to cover and 1 tablespoon of salt and let cook until the potatoes have become mushy. Then take 3-4 cup of flour and mix it well with 1 cup sweet milk, piece of butter size of an egg melted, and a dash of pepper and stir this paste gradually into the cooked vegetables. Let boil up until it thickens, then pour it into a baking dish. Cover with a crust made from any baking powder biscuit recipe, and bake in a moderate oven from 20 to 30 minutes. This can be varied by the addition of 1-2 can of tomatoes. Turnips may be added if liked. I find it delicious and thought some of your other readers might like to have it."

Old Housekeeper: "With a family consisting of a husband and seven children, I don't have much time for anything but 'short-cut' ways of running my home. Here is one little discovery of mine that has saved me lots of work; I keep my paper bags from grocer, butcher and other tradesfolk and put one of these in every scrap basket in the home. Large bags are of course, best to use in this way. The members of my family are instructed to throw their scraps and trash into the bag, not into the basket around it. Then, when the bag is full, it is so much easier for me just to lift it up and take it down cellar than it would be to bundle up a basketful of loose scraps and tie them! Try it."

Semi-invalid: "I am not strong and do not go out much, so every year at Christmas time, I enjoy making gifts that my entire family is to give to their friends. One thing I like particularly to make is this: Buy pillow tubing by the yard, cut it the size desired for fancy pillowcase, sew up one end of the tube, and mark out a large scalloped edge on the other end of the pillow case by placing a butter 'pat' down and marking around it, then placing it down again—and so on until you go around the entire edge. Now turn under the raw edge of these large scallops, hem neatly, and crochet a simple edge over—the tiny hem. Then embroider the initial of the person who is to receive the gift, just above the scalloping, in the exact center of one side of the pillow case. I make many pairs of these cases each year and they are greatly appreciated by the housekeepers who receive them.

"Another pretty gift I have been making this year are the new twine shopping bags in various colors. I wrote to Miss Kirkman to ask her the name of a firm that would sell me by mail the colored jute twine to crochet these bags, and she told me the name of a Boston firm that would sell them by mail—35c a ball. The colors are black, red, old-blue, yellow, green, cream white, navy blue, crush strawberry and a sort of cerise pink. There! Please forgive a garrulous invalid if she has taken up too much column space but I do hope to see this printed for I know it will help other women."

JANET INVITES MARGARET AND JOAN TO TED'S GRADUATION CHAPTER 103

Malcolm had gone but he had left pleasant memories and the promise of a renewed friendship very pleasing to all.

"He's so frank and honest, no one could help but like him," Margaret said to Joan.

"He's stubborn too, I think. You remember, Mumsie, he used to always get his way when he was a little boy, I think perhaps that was why I liked him better than the other boys."

"The masterful man idea, eh, Joan?"

"Perhaps! but it is queer, Mother how even when we are little we admire in a way the very things that appeal to us when we are older. Because a boy is strong or knows more—because a girl is more courageous, prettier, we admire them no matter what our age. I think Malcolm is fine! I hope he will come again. But he was awfully funny, Mumsie, about our dinner at the Green Parrot Sunday night. I could see he couldn't eat and yet he hated to go. Even the taxi driver laughed when he said our souls had been fed and now it was now our stomachs' turn."

"I'm not surprised that the cabbie laughed. I should have been with you. Malcolm is a nice, clean-minded boy, I am not surprised that he prefers clean food also. I hope he will run down soo nagain," her mother returned.

"So do I!" Joan replied.

"One more forlorn hope," Craig Forrester called Malcolm Frost. Craig would have dragged Joan to the altar with any nice young man of their acquaintance if he could. He felt so sure Margaret would marry him but for Joan and her objections to a step-father and to Margaret's making herself silly by marrying at "her age."

"The days pass very slowly at times, Margaret," Forrester said.

Often I become very impatient waiting. I want to be with you all the time, to see you, to leave you in the morning and know I shall return to you at night. So much of what is best in me is brought out by you I have even grasped at this young fellow's visit as an onerous grasp at a straw in hope he would be the means of freeing you from your vampire daughter."

"Don't you dare call Joan a vampire!"

"But isn't she? Isn't she sucking all the youthful happiness from both our lives? Isn't she making an old man of me because of it? Isn't she constantly vamping you to do as she desires? Of course she is."

"Please Craig! Don't be so hard on Joan. She is beginning to like you—ever since that awful experience in the park. She told me in confidence she was so glad to see you she could have hugged you."

"Um—don't you think, Margaret, she would say that about anyone that had happened to get her out of her predicament?"

"Nonsense!" Margaret was laughing merrily at Forrester's explanation.

"It is the truth badly as I hate to admit it."

Janet Baker (formerly Mrs. Walters) had returned from her wedding trip and was once more at home to her friends. While Margaret rejoiced that this was so and welcomed her delightfully she could not avoid a feeling of envy. Janet seemed so happy and so marvellously young.

"You never looked your age, but you don't look much older than Joan does now," Margaret said to her. Ted will have a hard time to make his classmates think you are his mother if you go over for commencement."

"Of course I'm going! you don't suppose I'd let that blessed boy graduate without being there! Come on, with me and take Joan. Ted would be delighted."

"I'd love to Janet, but I never can answer for Joan I never try to," she added with a little grimace.

"Make her come along. She seems a little softer than she used to be. I don't know that that is the right word but she certainly clings more closely to you."

"Perhaps—I hope so—"

"When are you going to marry Craig, Margaret?"

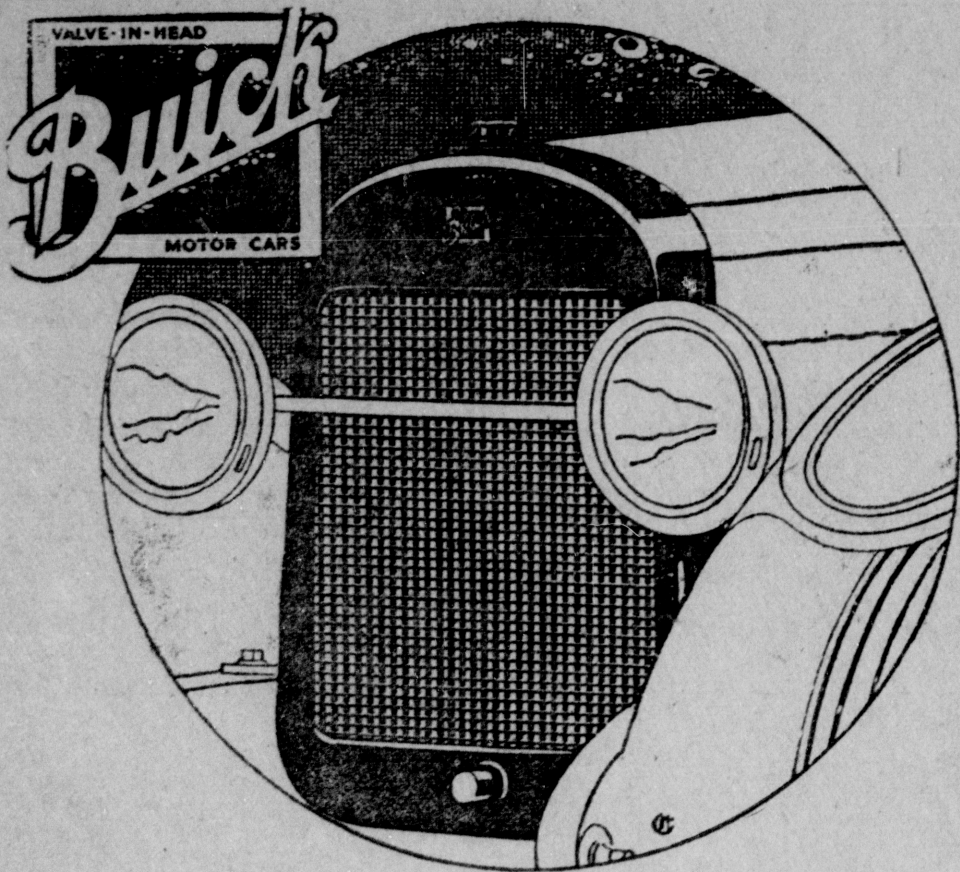

"When Joan says I may" Margaret returned so seriously that both women laughed. That's just the truth," she said after a moment. "I shall marry him, or anyone when Joan is willing."

"I think you are wronging both yourself and Craig."

"He understands."

"It's more than I do!" was Janet's retort.
